

Dalmatian Cruise

This Dalmatian Coast Cruise bypasses major European ports in deference to Roman ruins, lavender fields, the medieval towns of Korcula and Hvar, the famous salt lakes in the Mljet National Park, indulging on oysters in a once fortified small village and swimming at the famous beach Zlatni Rat. On-board expedition leaders and local guides reveal thousands of years of stories at these sites of ancient stone.

On-own explorations can be conducted by renting kayaks, bicycles and scooters, depending on the destination. Among the inclusions in the per person rate, double, starting at $1,425 are daily buffet breakfast and three-course lunch, drinks with meals, Dubrovnik sightseeing and scenic cable car ride, half day excursion of Ston with oyster farm visit and tasting, wine tasting at a traditional winery in Vis, Mljet National Park entrance fee, visitors' taxes and port fees, transfers from and to Split/Dubrovnik airports, daily cabin service, and Wi-Fi on-board.

www.adventuresmithexplorations.com/dalmatian-coast-cruise.

Indian Ocean Wedding

Set between a stunning stretch of black sand volcanic beach and rice fields, under the gaze of towering Mount Batukaru, Soori Bali makes for a remarkable tropical wedding setting. As the sun goes down, exchange vows at Soori Bali's dramatic peninsula overlooking the shimmering Indian Ocean.

Soori Bali boasts a range of exquisite wedding villas and venues, including the 10-room Soori Estate. Totalling 5,250 square metres, Bali's largest villa on hotel grounds comes with its own infinity pool, gym, spa, kitchen, helicopter pad, chauffeur-driven car and private butler.

If you love the emerald green of Ireland but want something warmer, Soori Bali is your match made in heaven. Visit www.sooribali.com for more information about bespoke wedding packages.

Out of Africa

With almost 3,000 kilometres of coast line and idyllic subtropical and Mediterranean climates, why is it that relatively few people associate South Africa with a beach holiday? Perhaps the numerous other attractions South Africa offers simply out-shine the pull of the beach here. However the simple truth is that relaxing on the sand remains a priority for many Irish honeymoon couples. It should come as no surprise that between South Africa, Mozambique and Mauritius, Southern Africa is more than equipped to compete with many of the better known beach destinations on the planet. Undoubtedly the surest way to organise your dream honeymoon to southern Africa is by going through a reputable, local, tour operator and asking them to tailor make an itinerary for you. Their first hand knowledge, experience, and preferential rates ensure you get the best advice possible as well as guaranteed value for money. Your dream African honeymoon, complete with quality beach time, really is closer than you think.

Visit: www.hiddenvintage.com or contact info@hiddenvintage.com for a free tailor made honeymoon proposal.